

4TH GRADE NEWS

January 2020

What are we learning this month?

ELA: In unit 3, students will learn about the power of information through the development of an infographic. Then, students will use their own infographic or their peers' infographics to develop an opinion about one of the selected topics. In the culminating event, students will take a stand in order to express their opinion about a selected topic and support it with evidence and information from multiple texts. Students will have a choice of expressing their opinion in a blog, podcast or screencast.

Math: Students will continue our unit on strategies for division. We will also practice estimation to help with division.

Social Studies: In the Geography and Economics in the United States Unit, students will answer how the geography of the United States affected the people living there. We will also learn about how the geography affected Maryland as a focus.
