

Your child has been working very hard in class. Here is a look at what we will be learning!

Reading: Wonders Unit 9- How Things Change

*How can you help out at home?

*How can you be a good citizen?

*How can things in nature be used to make new things?

*Important skills- main idea, key detail, and major events, make, confirm, and revise predictions, similarities and differences between two texts, retelling facts and events, compare and contrasts within texts

Phonics:

Letters and Sounds: long vowels- a, i, o with the silent e (i.e. bone, cape, kite)

Sight words: help, too, make, run, take, has, play, where, look, no

Isolating beginning, middle and ending sounds

Short and long vowels

Blending and segmenting sounds

Handwriting

Writing:

*Using descriptive words- adjectives

*Writing about a reading

*Editing a writing

Math: Unit 7- Counting and Data Analysis

*sort, classify and categorize objects

*using numbers, pictures, and words to represent a quantity

* composing and decomposing numbers within 20

*developing strategies for solving addition and subtraction story problems