

A note from the teachers:

*Continue to complete the homework journal each night and read for 20 minutes.

Look Ahead Dates

Reading MAP Test Dates:

Mrs. Clites' is testing 5/26 and Ms. Mellecker's Class is 5/27

Math MAP Test Dates:

Mrs. Clites' is testing 5/28 and Ms. Mellecker's Class is 5/29

Important

Dates

- *March 2nd- Read Across America Week starts- Dress for Success
- *March 2nd- PTA Meeting at 6pm
- *March 3rd- Stuffed Animal Day
- *March 4th- Wear Green
- *March 5th- Hat Day
- *March 6th- Pajama Day-Basket Bingo
- *March 10th- PTA Spirit Night at Deli-ish
- *March 11th- LifeTouch Picture Day
- *March 21st- Crossroads Spirit Breakfast
- *March 25th- Maryland Day
- *March 26th- Field Trip to the Zoo
- *March 31st- PTA Egg Dying

March Birthdays

- *Lilly F.
- *Avani O.
- *Sophia S.
- *August K.
- *Keelynn H.
- *Delilah B.
- *Jacob D.

Your child has been working very hard in class. Here is a look at what we will be learning!

Reading: Wonders Unit 7- The Animal Kingdom

*How are some animals alike and how are they different?

*How do you take care of different kinds of pets?

*Where do animals live?

*Important skills- cause and effect

sequencing events, similarities and differences between two texts, problem and solution, retelling facts and events, compare and contrasts within texts

Phonics:

Letters and Sounds: Ww, Kk, Ee, Qq, Yy, Vv

Sight words: look, with, her, what, was, were

Isolating beginning and ending sounds

Short vowels in medial position

Blending and segmenting sounds

Writing:

*Animal features and habitat research report

*Writing and answering questions

*Using adjectives

Math: Unit 6- Addition, Subtraction, and the Number System

*developing strategies for accurately counting

*using numbers, pictures, and words to represent a quantity

*composing and decomposing numbers within 20

*developing strategies for solving addition and subtraction story problems