

NOVEMBER THIRD GRADE NEWSLETTER

Ms. Lautenberger

blautenberger@bcps.org

667-251-4996

Ms. Meszaros for Ms. Pecson imeszaros@bcps.org

443-809-7505

Classroom Reminders

- 11/3: Turkey Trot! Students will be given a free t-shirt and a colored wrist band. Students will participate as their Tiger Color Family. Adult visitors must have a badge.
- 11/3: 3-hour early day, end of Marking Period 1.
- 11/14-11/17: American Education Week! RSVPs will be sent soon. Sessions are 9:00 – 11:00 or 1:00 – 3:00.
- 11/14 at 5:30PM: Student Showcase Night Event! All grade levels will participate. Scholastic Book Fair will be open to purchase books. More details coming soon.
- Instead of comments on the report card, Parent-Teacher Conferences are available.
- The temperature of our classroom varies. It often gets quite warm. Please have your child dress in layers.
- Cold and allergy season is here! If you would like to donate tissues, it would be greatly appreciated.
- Keep your eyes open for upcoming information about our first field trip!

Shout Outs to Our Paw Pride Winners for Showing the Virtue of Responsibility

Conner P. Katrina D.

Rex R. Camryn W.

Zachary J. Kayleigh S.

Ryan F. Logan F.

Happy Birthday

Grayson M. 11/12

Jameelah D. 11/14

Kassidy W. 11/28

Virtue of the Month

Gratitude- focusing on what is good in our lives and appreciating the things we have.

Practice at Home

Get an empty jar or cup. Each day, write one thing you are grateful for and put it in the cup. At the end of the month, read them with your family.

Genre and Culture Focus of the Month

Informational Texts and Native
American Heritage Month